

Lori & Andy

Love, laughter, support, fun and friendship; these are words that best describe our family. Nothing would make our family happier or more complete than welcoming your baby into our hearts, home and lives.

Dear Birthmother –

We admire your courage and selflessness in considering adoption for your baby. It is our strong belief that it takes a special person to consider placing her baby for adoption and you have our utmost respect. We are thrilled that you are getting to know a little about our lives and the dreams we share. Please know that we want to be supportive of you and understand that you are making a difficult decision. We hope that by getting to know us, you will feel comfortable with the two of us, our families and our lifestyle.

We are Lori and Andy. We are happily married and have known each other for over four years. Lori relocated to Chicago to take a new job and met Andy on her first day in her new city. Just like a fairy tale, one date led to another and before we knew it we were inseparable. We truly believe that our relationship was meant to be and we know that we'll spend the rest of our lives together "happily ever after."
